ANNAPOLIS INTEGRATIVE MEDICINE EMAIL COMMUNICATION OF HEALTH INFORMATION

As a patient of Annapolis Integrative Medicine (AIM), you may request that we communicate with you via unencrypted electronic mail (email). This Fact Sheet will inform you of the risks of communicating with your healthcare provider via email. Your health is important to us and we will make every effort to reasonably comply with your request to receive communications via email, however, we reserve the right to deny any request for email communications when it is determined that granting such a request would not be in yourbest interest.

PLEASE READ THIS INFORMATION CAREFULLY

A I M staff will make every effort to promptly respond to your requests forinformation via email, however, if you are experiencing an emergency, you should neverrely on email communications and should seek immediate medical attention.

Risks of using email to send protected health information include, but are not limited, to:

- Risk of Unauthorized Access by a 3rd Party: Do you share a computer with your family? Is your email address or access to email provided through your employer? Do you access your email over an unsecured connection such as public Wi-Fi? Do you access your email on your mobile device? Emails may be accessed by someone you do not wish to know about your health information. Despite necessary precautions, email may be sent to the wrong address byeither party. Email may be intercepted or altered in transmission by a computer hacker or computer virus.
- Unique Difficulty in Verifying the Sender: Email may be easier to forge than handwritten or signed papers. AIM will only send emails to the email address you provide, but it may be difficult to confirm that you are in fact the person sending the request for information from your email address.

Procedures

- Emails are not checked outside of normal business hours this includes overnight, on weekends or holidays.
- Please call AIM at 410-266-3613 to confirm that your request was received if you haven't received a response by email or telephone within 24 hours.
- If at any time you change your email address or wish to discontinue email communications altogether, you must notify AIM immediately in writing.
